Re: Haldeman Creek FEMA Technical Analysis

MSTU Haldeman Creek MSTU, Collier County

HM File No. 25-026

Dear Debrah,

This technical analysis is a review of the potential shoaling effects of Hurricane Irma which impacted the Naples area on September 10, 2017. Hurricane Irma caused an irregular water level fluctuation within the area including Naples Bay. Refer to Figure 1 for water level elevations recorded by a tide gauge located on the Naples Pier. This degree of fluctuation in water levels has the potential of creating turbid waters and depositing sediment within back bays and canals.

Based on the review of historical aerials of Naples Bay, Figure 2 shows the Creek being dredge and created in circa 1962. This appears to be the first and only dredging prior to the 2006 project. Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and United States Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) permits are provided in Appendix A and reference approximately 45,000 cubic yards (cy) to be dredged, according the pre-construction survey of 2006.

To assess the potential damage caused by Hurricane Irma to Haldeman Creek, it is necessary to develop a background in-fill rate. This would be the natural average of sediment deposited, not including any significant storm events. This can be achieved by reviewing historical survey data and the time between each survey to develop an estimated volumetric rate of change in cubic yards per year (cy/yr). Due to the limited survey data of the Creek, the 2006 pre-construction survey volume obtained from the regulatory permits was used. Applying the approximately 45,000 cy over the time period since the Creek was initially dredged, approximately 44 years, a background in-fill rate of approximately 1,000 cy/yr was estimated.

Applying this in-fill rate to the current conditions, Humiston and Moore Engineers compared the current volume between the 2007 post construction survey and the current 2019 survey. Figure 3 shows typical sections and how volumes were calculated. The area between the two surveys are computed, averaged, and then multiplied by the distance between each survey station. In this case, the distance between the stations are 50 feet. This method is referred to as the average end-area method. The hatch area shows the change in cy found in Table 1.

Table 1 is a summary of the calculated volumes for the main channel and each adjoining canal. Refer to Appendix B for canal location and associated cross sections. The main channel and adjoining canals show accretion or shoaling from the 2007 dredging except for canal E-E, which shows negligible scouring.

From: Shirley Garcia, Program Manager

Subject: Haldeman Creek/Maintenance of Canals in Navigable Waterways

Date: November 6, 2023

The committee has requested staff draft an amendment to the weeds, litter and exotic removal ordinance to include that property owners be responsible for and remove any obstruction that would impede the navigable waterway within the Haldeman Creek boundaries.

Recommendation: To review and recommend any changes to the draft ordinance and a motion for staff to work with the appropriate county divisions to facilitate an amendment to the ordinance.

2023 International Coastal Cleanup

Keep Collier Beautiful is proud to have led the 38th annual International Coastal Cleanup on September 16, 2023. Nearly 1,000 volunteers flocked to Collier County's beaches, canals, and lakes to protect the community's wildlife by picking up litter and debris.

Among the organizers, site captains, and volunteers were staff members from the Collier County Solid & Hazardous Waste Management Division, Collier County's Park Rangers, Collier County Road Maintenance Division, Bayshore Gateway Triangle CRA, Immokalee CRA, Collier County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller's Office, and the UF/IFAS Extension of Collier County.

It took more than 3,000 volunteer-service hours to organize this community-wide cleanup effort. Volunteers collected over 360 trash bags of litter and debris from 17 locations, including sites like Barefoot Beach, Clam Pass, Rookery Bay NERR, Lake Trafford, Vanderbilt Beach, Delnor-Wiggins Park, and more. In addition to plastic and glass bottles, cigarette buts, and expected debris, volunteers found planks of wood, construction materials, and barnacle-covered chairs that may have been remnants of Hurricane Ian continuing to wash ashore.

Keep Collier Beautiful appreciates the contributions of local civic organizations, high school clubs, as well as Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops that took part in the event. Additionally, organizations such as the WM, Naples Airport, Walmart, WastePro, and the Hilton Naples brought out groups to support the local environment. Some also picked up paddles to go out on a kayak to collect debris from the mangroves. Collier County residents of all ages and from different walks of life joined to lend their hands for this event, showing their love and care for the community.

The International Cleanup event was founded by the Ocean Conservancy, with local efforts being spearheaded by Keep Collier Beautiful and its partner organizations. The community-wide cleanup brings together volunteers, local businesses, and municipalities to support Collier County's unique environment. Through ongoing partnerships, Keep Collier Beautiful helps support litter prevention, education, and community cleanup programs.

Hope this finds you well! As you are probably aware, we have another hurricane coming to FL on a full moon. Ugh!

Meanwhile, I've been working with a Buyer who is considering purchasing a lot on a side canal off Haldeman Creek, on the east side of the bridge.

Some questions and concerns he had prompted me to email you.

- 1. Is there any consideration being made for another dredging of Haldeman and the side canals? (It is a topic that comes up, but no action so far. Most Board Members don't realize that our charge is to "maintain " vs "deepen". Studies so far don't support another dredge ....at least for the foreseeable future)
- 2. Are homeowners accountable for trimming their exotic trees, some of which are severely overhanging and blocking canal access? Will there ever be an enforcement of this? (Yes, homeowners responsible for exotics....and several members would like to see the Ordinance changed to include anything overhanging. About 5 years ago we surveyed and Code E made some homeowners trim or remove exotics).
- 3. Will there ever be an ordinance or enforcement to homeowner to build a seawall or install rip rap on their water frontage, so, the soil from their property doesn't silt into the canal on the sides? (Been no activity in this regard....only impacts property East of the bridge as most other properties have seawalls...)
- 4. Has there been any consideration of raising the bridge? I realize this may not be something your board decides, but thought I'd ask anyway. (Never been mentioned at any meeting I have been involved with )

Wishing you and yours ease and grace with this storm and any others in the coming month or more.

THANKS.....Roy
